Working with Parents and Families

This evidence-based workshop includes material from the presenter's doctoral research

7 October 2020

2 hour
Interactive
Session

Workshop emphasize on how to maximise constructive conversations with Parents/ families for those working in educational settings.

Teachers – Counsellors- School Social Workers

Learning Outcomes:

- To consider how parents may think about their role and the impact this has on their interactions with schools
- To appreciate the range of both experiences and emotions that families bring with them in relation to their child's learning and behaviour
- To explore how schools might establish positive relationships with families from the outset and ways in which these might be maintained
- To think through how to best address concerns with parents when difficulties arise
- What it means to 'co-construct' the child rather than competing for a different view
- How to best manage parent meetings
- How to de-escalate potential aggression
